

HELLA Receives 2017 Beijing Benz Automotive Supplier Award

Award in the category “Quality” recognizes product and technical expertise as well as customer service

Shanghai, July 13, 2018. The lighting and electronics expert HELLA has received the 2017 Beijing Benz Automotive Supplier Award. The award in the category “Quality”, presented by Mr. Heinz Werner Max, Vice President of Quality Management, and Mr. Sun Hui, Vice President of Company Affairs and Legal, recognizes HELLA’s product and technical expertise and its customer service.

“This Quality Award from Beijing Benz is a great honor for HELLA China and the entire HELLA-BHAP team. Especially in the light of our massive growth with Beijing Benz and the ramp-up of a dedicated new plant in Wuqing, it is of great significance for us to be recognized for our high-quality lighting and electronics products”, says Dr. Frank Huber, Member of the HELLA Management Board and responsible for Business Division Lighting. “HELLA will continue to invest into innovative products with highest claims in quality and performance for an outstanding customer experience.”

Based on an evaluation of the suppliers’ overall quality performance over the past year, Beijing Benz Automotive (BBAC) annually recognizes suppliers that have delivered products which meet the highest quality standard with an award for their outstanding contributions and partnership. In the past, HELLA has been supplying BBAC with a variety of innovative lighting technologies and electronic products, including sophisticated LED-based lighting systems and control modules.
