FOCUSED ON THE UK

Combining the benefits of a global infrastructure with expert local knowledge, we deliver a comprehensive product range together with responsive service and support.

Focusing on wholesaler distribution, we enable independent workshops to access the latest OE parts and technologies; providing the reassurance of 'fit first time' compatibility and quality across a huge range of vehicles. And with our joint ventures, Hella Gutmann Solutions and Behr Hella Service, we can provide you with the parts, service and information to support all of your requirements.

GLOBAL OE SUPPLIER. 24,000 PARTS. 5 PRODUCT GROUPS.

With over 24,000 high quality parts and garage equipment, covering five product groups, Hella is a key component of today's passenger cars and commercial vehicles – and a must-have supplier in fast-growing product areas such as electronics, air conditioning, engine cooling and diagnostic equipment.

Our products for the aftermarket are made on the same assembly line as those for the vehicle manufacturers that we supply, bringing the guarantee of fit-first-time quality and reliability to the independent aftermarket.
