Automechanika 2022: HELLA presents comprehensive range of products and services for automotive workshops and wholesalers

- The focus is particularly on solutions for the electromobility megatrend and a wide range of training and service offerings for workshops and customers.
- Hella Gutmann and Hella Pagid are also represented at the approximately 800 square meter HELLA booth (Hall 9.0, Booth A80/88)

HELLA, the lighting and electronics specialist operating under the FORVIA umbrella brand, will present its comprehensive range of solutions for automotive workshops and wholesalers at Automechanika in Frankfurt from September 13 to 17, 2022. After a four-year break due to the pandemic, Automechanika, one of the world's leading automotive trade shows for equipment, parts, accessories, management and services, will be held for the first time again in its usual form at the Frankfurt am Main exhibition site.

The focus of the approximately 800-square-meter HELLA booth (Hall 9.0, Booth A80/88), where partners Hella Gutmann Solutions and Hella Pagid will also be represented, will be on solutions for current and future challenges in automotive workshops and the aftermarket. One thematic focus in particular is on solutions for hybrid and electric vehicles. Hella Gutmann Solutions presents innovative product solutions for dealing with high-voltage technology, including high-voltage (HV) battery diagnostics and the new guided HV measurements via mega macs X diagnostic unit and the MT-HV high-voltage measurement module. Another focus of HELLA's trade fair presence will be on the comprehensive training opportunities and the wide range of services that workshops can use to increase their skills.

Visit HELLA at Automechanika from September 13 to 17, 2022 in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, in Hall 9.0 Booth A80/88 and see for yourself groundbreaking product innovations and the comprehensive range of customer services. As part of the trade show appearance, there will also be a press conference with Stefan van Dalen, Head of HELLA Aftermarket, and Rolf Kunold, Managing Director of Hella Gutmann Solutions on 13 September, at 3 pm.
