SPARE PARTS FOR ASIAN VEHICLES FROM THE THERMAL MANAGEMENT EXPERTS

Rely on our expertise in products and services for your customers with Asian vehicles.
Experience our wide range of products for yourself!

Behr Hella Service is well known as THE expert for engine cooling and vehicle air conditioning. The quality of Behr Hella Service is characterised by reliability, fitting accuracy and durability. This quality is based on Behr's OE expertise, which is incorporated directly into our products. We offer these products as quality parts for a variety of passenger cars, transporters and commercial vehicles.

With more than 6,500 spare parts, our product range serves vehicles of every age, class and make. Of course this also includes a large selection for Asian vehicles.

In order to provide you with a brief overview of the Behr Hella Service program for these vehicle types, we have compiled a selection of the more than 1,000-part product portfolio for Asian vehicles on the following pages.

You can find the complete product range from Behr Hella Service in the corresponding catalogues as well as in TecDoc.
